

Throw Back to Basics

Air Bags

Use colored hoses to differentiate the bags, it makes calling the lift easier and less confusing

"Lift an Inch, Crib an Inch"

When using airbags, remember to never stack more than two high, always place the larger bag on the bottom, mark the lift capacity of your bags so you know their limit

Have the operator look away from the lift, this will ensure that he only lifts on the call of the lift manager

